Norfolk Secures Big Convention.

Norfolk, Va., April 20.—Norfolk will secure the annual meeting of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' association, to be held June 5, 6 and 7. President J. A. VanHoose, of Birmingham, Ala., has intimated to the wholesale grocers and tobaccoists' association of Tidewater, Va., that the southern body which has been meeting heretofore at South Atlantic ports, would be pleased to come to Norfolk this year, and the local organization will at once seek the co-operation of other business bodies with a view to securing the southern meeting which will bring over 500 wholesale men and jobbers here. The idea is to hold the convention either at Ocean View or Virginia Beach.

Lawyer Who Killed Man Debarred.
Birmingham, Ala., April 20.—A sensation was caused in the criminal court when Solicitor Hefflin declined to allow Roland Shugart, a young lawyer, to participate in prosecuting a criminal case although Shugart was retained by the prosecution. The trial judge sustained him and an appeal will be taken to the supreme court. Roland Shugart killed a man two years ago and the relations have been strained between his family and Hefflin since that time.

Wireless Telegraph Station.

St. Augustine, Fla., April 20.—Within a short time the United States government will establish a wireless telegraph station on Anastasia island, in front of St. Augustine. ## SAYS WOMAN IS HOUNDING HIM.

Railroad Contractor Secures an Injunction Against Pursuer.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 20.—W. J. Oliver, a prominent railroad contractor of this city, filed a sensational bill in chancery court against Miss Nonnie Cross, enjoining her from hounding him and members of his family and from interfering with his office, residence and railroad construction work in this and other states, particularly Georgia.

Chancellor Sneed granted the injunction and bond for $5,000 was given.

Some time ago Miss Cross brought suit against Mr. Oliver for $100,000 damages for alleged breach of promise, the alleged proposition of marriage having been made while Mr. Oliver was a widower and previous to his second marriage.

He claims that he has paid her something over $3,000 in full settlement of her alleged claims.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for coughs, sore throats or colds; sure preventive of pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1.00 bottles at all drug stores. Trial bottle free.

Denies Habeas Corpus Writ.

Boston, April 19.—The application of Arthur E. Appleyard for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent his extradition to New York was denied today by Justice Morton, of the state supreme court. The extradition which was recently authorized by Governor Douglas was asked for by New York authorities in connection with the indictment of Appleyard for alleged grand larceny from the German bank of Buffalo. Counsel for Appleyard announced that he would take a habeas corpus appeal to the United States supreme court.

Guilty of Carrying Cigarettes.

Muncie, Ind., April 19.—Chester Bell, a young white man, was fined $25 and costs, amounting in all to $35, today in the police court on the charge of having cigarette papers in his pocket. Bell said he had never smoked a cigarette in his life. He was arrested on another charge and on being searched the papers were found in his possession. This is the first penalty assessed in Indiana since the anti-cigarette bill became effective.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine E. H. Wolfe of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." All druggists guarantee them at 50c.

A Snub For Mollers.

A remarkable incident is reported for a suburban theater in Paris. The play was "Tartuffe," and at the end of the fourth act the manager of the company came in front of the curtain and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, we shall not go any further with this piece, for the fifth act is unworthy of Mollers." How the audience took this announcement is not stated. Perhaps they went home and read the fifth act critically in the seclusion of the library.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Shelbyburg, Wis., writes May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Where He Made His Money.

Years ago a gentleman settled in the south of England and became very popular in the neighborhood. The county families could never discover how he had made his money, but were satisfied by his solemn assurance that it was not in trade. Nothing could exceed the ordinary gravity of his demeanor, which, indeed, caused him to be placed on the commission of peace, but now and then, without any apparent provocation, he would burst into such a laugh as no one ever heard before except in one place.

Where they could have heard it puzzled the county families for five and twenty years, but at last he was betrayed unconsciously by his own grandchild, who after a visit to a traveling circus innocently exclaimed, "Why, grandpa laughs just like the clown!" —James Payn.

Horses in the Time of Homer.

The horses used in Homer's time were war horses. The warriors were drawn in chariots. The art of riding was known, but it is alluded to as something unusual. Ulysses at the time of his shipwreck "bestrode a plunk, like a horseman on a big steed." There are reasons for believing that the practice of riding was much later than that of driving, and the myth of the centaur, where, according to Shakespeare, "man is incorporated and demitured with the beast," probably originated at an early period when the appearance of a man on horseback was a novel sight.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Penn., Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.
